

1. Coddled

He can dish it out but he can't take it back He can throw a fit in front of me but he can't handle a chat

(chorus)

Coddled coddled coddled coddled coddled coddled coddled, coddled little man who was it that told you you were God

He can talk about his feelings but he can't think of mine He is waiting for the perfect girl so she can listen to him whine (chorus)

Try to get to know someone first before you judge Take your shoes off walk in the mud

2. You Can't Make Me Care

I've got four walls and numbers to keep me company one of those walls isn't even real, its a bookshelf turned around I've got hours and hours to count down down down down down
down down down down down

(chorus)

And you can't make me care
You can't make me care

I go, I go to bars more often now and I'm lucky for the Seattle freeze cause if anyone talks to me I might cry tears into my pear cider (chorus)

She says its only temporary but what if its not, what if its not what if its not I feel like I'm going nowhere I was just here and I was just there but I'm going nowhere (chorus)

3. Chipembere (Rhino)

Little stones turn from white to brown we forget how dirty we are looks like the sun's coming out and the worst part is over now

(chorus)

We don't have the time to fuck around anymore there's a Rhino waiting at the door

Be polite, be rude just get it out I'm trying to read between the truths She waited all her life just to say its over now (chorus)

It was around this time last year she said exactly how she feels

She waited for me
She waited, she waited for me
I took my damn time

4. Something is Wrong Here

Short lines, long lines
Its a vacation Warm hands, cold hands they call it Summer

(chorus)

Something is wrong here
Something is wrong

Short fuse, long fuse when is it gonna blow Changing everything but nothing has changed at all (chorus)

Its hard to know when to give up and when to keep trying

Two eyes, four eyes and something between them Can it be fixed or is it too late (chorus)

5. I Just Do It For the Cats

I've got two loves in my life They'll both sleep with me tonight They're beautiful, beautiful and soft Its just too cold to go outside I wanna stay in my bed for the rest of my life but I just go on for the cats

(chorus)

If they didn't have to eat I might never wake from my sleep and when they look at me They don't care what I've got They don't care what I make They don't care what I'm not and to hell with sex
and to hell with sex

They are always here for me cause I never let them leave They sleep in tiny circles and they make me smile with the little noises they make (chorus)

7. When Are You Coming Home

When are you coming home?
The question is all around Throw a bone to us
Throw a bone to us
We don't have to answer
You don't have to answer
One day they'll stop asking One day I'll stop asking, too

When are you coming home?
Years go by a quiet song that will always last Getting hard to recall all the lyrics of the past But if you sing it to me just that sweet melody Stays in my memory
Maybe we'll have some times again

When are you coming home?
Throw a bone to us
Throw a bone to us
When are you coming home?
When are you coming home?

8. Bødo

Let's all state the obvious hundred pictures of one thing Lazy Sunday afternoon nothing but to think of you

(chorus)

and wonder if one day we'll look back and regret the choices we both made in fear

There's some beauty to be seen hidden in the silences
This time you're not here with me
I can stare across the sea (chorus)

We said goodbye as if one of us died and the memories are all we have to keep in a small closet in our hearts
